Session 8: HTML5

Assignment

ACADGILD

Session 8: HTML5

Assignment – HTML 5 Form handling and validation

Table of Contents

1. Introduction

This assignment will test your skills on HTML 5 and form handling and new input types concepts learnt in the class.

2. Objective

Get the brief knowledge of HTML 5 form validation and form handling .

3. Prerequisites

You should have some text editor like –

1) Notepad
2) Notepad ++
3) Sublime
4) Or any text editor

And you should use html 5 version . only you have to include <!DOCTYPE html> for html page at the first line.

4. Associated Data Files

Not Applicable.

5. Problem Statement
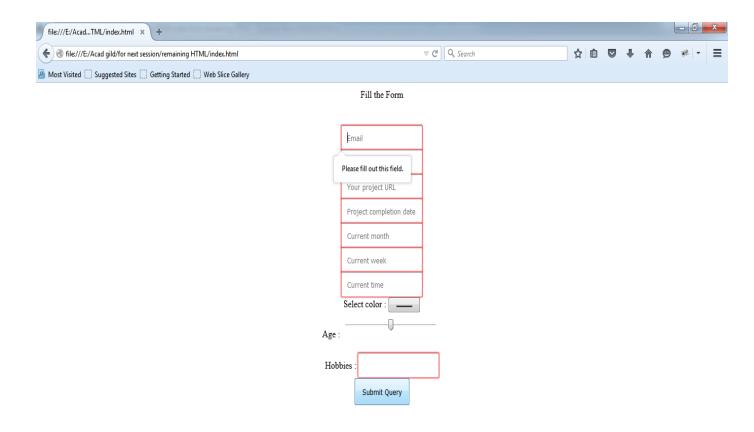

Create one form having following fields

1) Email (with html5 email validation).

2) Password (It should take minimum 6 charactors).

3) Your project URL (with html5 url validation).

4) Project completion date (with html5 date validation).

5) Current month (with html5 month validation).

6) Current week (with html5 week validation).

7) Current time (with html5 time validation).

8) Select color (with html5 color features).

9) Age (with html5 range features and also show the selected age).

10) Your hobbies (with html5 data list).

And each field cannot be blank , and auto complete should be not there for email field. And autofocus should be on email field , and also provide placeholder for each possible field.

6. Expected Output

7. Approximate Time to Complete Task

1 hour